

DISASTER RECOVERY SUPPORT FOR TOWNS

The North Carolina League of Municipalities has received grant funding to help towns impacted by Hurricane Helene. These services are provided free of charge and available to any municipality in need.

We are here to help your community recover and rebuild with support that includes:

- Catching up on bookkeeping and accounting
- Workforce capacity and staffing support
- Cybersecurity assessment and support
- Grant writing and grant management
- Legal guidance
- Project management
- Planning assistance
- FEMA compliance

Our services are provided by trusted partners and local experts based in North Carolina.

The League is here to help your town—free of charge.
